

Guest Contributor Agreement

You agree that any Work you submit and that we post and publish on StuttgartDNA.com (hereafter also referred to as "we," "us" or "the Website") is subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the prevailing Guest Contributor Terms and Conditions on the Website, any modifications issued by StuttgartDNA.com to all said terms, as well as all applicable laws and regulations. BY SUBMITTING AND POSTING TO STUTTGARTDNA.COM, YOU AGREE TO THE TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT.

A "Work" as herein expressed is defined as a written, drawn, painted, graphical or CGI depiction, or a photographic, video or audio piece or other such similarly formatted medium, that must be originally created by and authored by you.

You agree, in essence, then, to the following:

- i. Your Work must not have been posted on any other website, forum or social media network as of the date on which it is to first be posted on <https://StuttgartDNA.com>. The Work then cannot be subsequently posted or published anywhere else on the Internet, in part or in its entirety – including on your own website or blog.
- ii. The Work becomes the exclusive property of StuttgartDNA, to whom you are unconditionally granting perpetual, irrevocable, worldwide, non-exclusive, royalty-free, and licensable rights to your Work.
- iii. Submission of your Work constitutes your acknowledgment that you will receive no monetary compensation, and that you are entering into this Agreement without any expectation of compensation, other than benefits derived from your Work garnering broad exposure to, as well as publicity and promotion in, the StuttgartDNA Community.
- iv. We retain the right to make edits, alterations and/or corrections to any Work that you submit. Your Work is subject to our final editing decisions insofar as we retain the right to final draft which we can edit how we deem necessary without further notice to you and without the need for your approval.
- v. For the duration of this Agreement, your status will always be independent of, and separate from, the entity of the Website; i.e., you will not attain status of an employee, agent or member of the Website through your submission(s).
- vi. In the event that you fail to honor the terms of this Agreement, StuttgartDNA shall retain and exercise the right, in its sole discretion, to terminate this Agreement, to refuse to post any of your Works and/or to remove any non-compliant Works from the Website, all without further notice to you.

You agree, moreover, to indemnify StuttgartDNA and hold us harmless from and against all damages, claims, losses and expenses, including court costs and reasonable expenses and fees of attorneys, expert witnesses, and other professionals, arising out of or resulting from any action by all third parties against StuttgartDNA that is based on any claim that any Work of yours infringes upon a copyright or other proprietary right or that violates and/or betrays any trade secrets.

The laws of the State of California (other than provisions thereof relating to conflicts of law) shall have exclusive jurisdiction over the governance and adjudication of this Guest Contributor Agreement.

If the foregoing accurately reflects our agreement regarding the subject matter hereof, please so confirm it by signing and dating our Guest Contributor Agreement below, and by returning a PDF of the original with your wet signature via email to me.
